Great Success for the Third Annual Montgomery County Business Hall of Fame Event
*Hall of Fame event raised over $100,000 for the Universities at Shady Grove (USG)
Scholarship Fund, as it recognized its newest members*

BETHESDA, MD – November 3, 2014 – Grossberg Company LLP \(Grossberg Company\) and Monument Bank, founders of the Montgomery County Business Hall of Fame (MCBHOF) announces another successful sold out event, which took place on Wednesday, October 29, 2014 at The Universities at Shady Grove (USG). Since its inception, MCBHOF has raised over $425,000 for the USG Scholarship Fund. This third annual ceremony honored the following five inductees into the MCBHOF: Mark Choe, Owner of Mark's Kitchen Restaurant; Dottie Fitzgerald, Vice President of Fitzgerald Auto Mall; David Reznick, Co-founder of CohnReznick LLP; Ola Sage, CEO at e-Management; and Annie Totah, Founder & President at AST Partnership for Brighter Tomorrows. It was a special opportunity to support the next generation of the Montgomery County business leaders.

“Our 2014 honorees represent Montgomery County’s business leaders’ continuous efforts to make a positive impact and difference in our community,” stated Mr. H.L. Ward, President and CEO of Monument Bank. “We sincerely thank all attendees and supporters for contributing to another great event.”

Eun Yang, the morning co-anchor of NBC4 News emceed the event. Also in attendance were top leaders in the local business community, as well as prominent leadership, including County Executive, Ike Leggett; and this year’s keynote speaker Chancellor of the University Systems of Maryland, William “Brit” Kirwan..

“Our third annual event continued our community tradition and we are so proud to contribute another $100,000 to the USG Scholarship Fund,” said Larry Rosenblum, Partner of Grossberg Company LLP. “It was a pleasure to celebrate another successful year with the community leaders, and all our inductees both past and present. We are proud to continue having a small role in supporting the county’s future leaders.

Grossberg Company LLP and Monument Bank want to personally thank the sponsors, the attendees and those that donated for their time and contributions.
