Fourth Annual Montgomery County Business Hall of Fame Ceremony Enjoys Another Sold Out Event!

The 2015 ceremony, which honored the newest inductees, resulted in a net 4-year total of $535,000 raised for the Universities at Shady Grove (USG) Scholarship Fund

BETHESDA, MD – October 30, 2015 – Grossberg Company LLP and Monument Bank, founders of the Montgomery County Business Hall of Fame (MCBHOF), announced today another successful event, which took place on Tuesday, October 27, 2015 at The Universities at Shady Grove (USG).

Since its inception, MCBHOF has raised over $535,000 for the USG Scholarship Fund. This year's ceremony inducted the following four honorees who have made a significant impact to the Montgomery County business community:

- Ron Paul, Chairman & CEO, EagleBank
- Martine Rothblatt, Ph.D., CEO, United Therapeutics Corp
- Kevin Sexton, President and CEO, Holy Cross Health
- Jim Sweet, President, Smokey Glen Farm Barbequers, Inc.

“Our 2015 honorees represent business leaders who have enhanced the corporate climate of Montgomery County,” stated H.L.Ward, CEO of Monument Bank. “It was an honor celebrating all of our inductees, past and present, who share a vision to do something truly unique and extraordinary as well as raising monies to fund scholarships.

The MCBHOF was again emceed by NBC4 News morning co-anchor, Eun Yang and welcomed U.S. Representative Chris Van Hollen, Montgomery County Executive Ike Leggett, and Chancellor of the University System of Maryland, Dr. Robert Caret to address the crowd of over 350 people.

“Our fourth annual ceremony has given us the opportunity to continue supporting and making generous donations to the USG Scholarship fund, and we are proud to play a small role in encouraging the future leaders of Montgomery County,” stated Larry Rosenblum, Partner of Grossberg Company LLP. “On behalf of both Grossberg Company and Monument Bank, we would like to personally thank the sponsors, attendees, and donors for their time and contributions.”

All net proceeds from MCBHOF benefit the scholarship programs at USG, the University System of Maryland's regional educational center which brings nine Maryland public universities and more than 80 academic degree programs directly to Montgomery County.
